

For Immediate Release

Tokio Marine Life Insurance Singapore expands into financial advisory to offer increasingly discerning clients a comprehensive financial planning experience

- This significant move made last April marked Tokio Marine Life Insurance Singapore's commitment to offering more strategic, integrated and personalised financial solutions.
- Clients can benefit from the diverse product range offered by the new financial advisory arm, Tokio Marine Financial Advisers (Singapore) Private Limited, in meeting their evolving needs and priorities.

Singapore, 27 June 2024 - Tokio Marine Life Insurance Singapore Ltd (TMLS) launched its new financial advisory arm, Tokio Marine Financial Advisers (Singapore) Private Limited (TMFAS), last April.

Through this strategic move, the forward-thinking life insurer has been able to provide clients with a more strategic and integrated financial service experience that encompasses financial planning and wealth management.

As clients leverage on a diverse range of financial planning and wealth management solutions offered by TMLS and its partners, they can be reassured they are making strides toward their financial wellbeing with the backing of a trusted and established insurance company.

Wholly owned by TMLS, TMFAS is licensed and regulated by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS).

Jun Tokura, Deputy CEO, TMLS, shared: "TMFAS synergises the best that TMLS and our partners have to offer. We are grateful for our dedicated advisors, who continue to deliver a high quality of service following the transition. TMLS also extends our heartfelt gratitude to our clients for their trust and support."

Cheong Kum Foo, CEO, TMFAS, said: "We are proud to respond to clients' concerns and to serve their financial needs holistically at TMFAS. We will continue to seek opportunities to expand our product and solution offerings and enhance our advisory capabilities to better support our clients on their financial planning and wealth management journey."